Arab Finance: Egypt-based renewable energy investment firm Enara Group is planning to invest up to $100 million in the renewables sector until 2027, CEO Sherif El Gabaly told Al Borsa News. The firm seeks to attract investments to the Egyptian renewables sector via collaboration with international partners, El Gabaly noted.

ENARA pledges to develop 1GW of clean energy in Egypt only by 2030. With 320MWp co-developed and under operations, 100MWp under development/construction in the country and investments across the value chain, we are well positioned to make a significant contribution to Egypt"s 2030 target of achieving...

In addition to supporting countries &  business transition towards a cleaner energy, ENARA"s corporate policy is to localize the value chain &  build the capacity, triggering important local employment opportunities &  contributing to at least 10 of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.
